LEADER Bible Study

King Uzziah's death marked the end of an era. His reign had been long and prosperous. Uzziah became king when he was 16, and he reigned over Judah for 52 years. Then Uzziah died. Under Uzziah's leadership, God's people had turned away from the promises of God and trusted in the promises of the world around them. God had promised to bless the entire world through Abraham's family, but God's people were rebellious. Instead of blessing, they set themselves up to receive God's judgment.

But God's plans and promises were not thwarted. God sent the prophet Isaiah to preach a message of hope. Even though God was going to correct His people through judgment, His purpose was one of grace through which God would receive glory. God planned to send a Messiah who would bring salvation to the world.

Isaiah 6 opens with Isaiah's worshiping in the temple. God gave Isaiah a vision. Isaiah saw God sitting on a throne. The magnitude of God's holiness made Isaiah realize the magnitude of his own sin. His response? "Woe is me!" God extended His grace to Isaiah. He took away Isaiah's guilt, and sent him to His people.

Isaiah 53 records the fourth and final Servant song in the Book of Isaiah, describing God's plan of redemption. We see a vision of the promised Messiah, the innocent substitute who would suffer for the sake of sinners.

Jesus fulfilled Isaiah's prophecies of a Suffering Servant. People assumed God had cursed the Suffering Servant for His own sins. But no, Jesus was sinless. Isaiah wrote that He was pierced because of our transgressions and crushed because of our iniquities. His punishment is what brought our peace. The Suffering Servant died the death we deserve.

Isaiah's words came 700 years before Jesus was born. This was God's plan all along! When we trust in Jesus, our sins are wiped away and His righteousness is credited to us.

KID CONNECT

Welcome time

Intro Music

Play intro music and greet each kid as he or she arrives. Use this time to fill out attendance sheets, and help new kids connect to your group. Prompt kids to share about a dream they remember having. Was it a good dream or a nightmare?

SAY • We often dream when we are asleep, even when we cannot remember what we dreamed about. Today we will learn about a man whom God gave a vision, which is kind of like a dream, but it happens while awake. What do you think God might say to a person in a vision?

LINEUP

This is a mini-game inside of the VS. game on the computer. MOST of the game will be run digitally.

Select 2 teams (5 boys and 5 girls) to play. Give each kid a piece of cardstock with a single number on it (1, 2, 3, 4 and 5) and have them hold it up in front of them. When you say go, the tech will select START in the game and a random number will appear in a random order on the screen. Teams must arrange themselves in this order and whichever team does so first, gets a point. First to 3 points wins.

NOTE: Not all 5 numbers will necessarily be used each time so if a kid is holding a number that is not in the sequence, they must move out of the way.

Introduce the session (3 minutes)

leader attire, mailbox, letter

[Leader enters wearing casual clothing. He or she walks to the mailbox and opens it, withdrawing a letter from within.]

Leader • Oh, hey there, neighbors. Check it out: I got a letter! I really love getting mail. How many of you like getting letters in the mail? [Allow responses.]

I don't mean junk mail and advertisements, though occasionally they can help me find good deals on groceries. I'm talking about letters from friends or family members, addressed specifically to me. Letters in my mailbox make me feel loved and special.

This letter is from my pen pal. I met him while on vacation last summer, and we agreed to each write one letter a month. [Briefly scan letter.] It seems he is doing well. He just started reading a book I recommended to him. It's an adventure book, where the main character learns she is the chosen one and has to save the world! It's very exciting. All this talk of letters and chosen ones reminds me of the most exciting story ever: the story of Jesus!

The Bible is full of different books, written by many different human authors. All of them are God's words, though. God inspired people and gave them just the right words to write. Because of that, the Bible is like a letter from God to people. Isaiah was one of the men God chose to write part of the Bible. Isaiah was a prophet, or messenger from God. He wrote about God's promises for the future. Let me tell you about Isaiah.

Big picture question (1 minute)

CG: Big Picture Question

Leader • As we get into our Bible story, let's pay attention to learn the answer to a new big picture question. Our question for the next few weeks is: How did God plan to fix what sin broke? As I tell you each story, listen for clues that can help us understand the answer to our question.

Leader • Remember, God created the world, but soon after, Adam and Eve broke everything by choosing to sin. God had a plan and chose Abraham to bless the world. Abraham's family grew and eventually became the nation of Israel. They spent a long time in Egypt as slaves, but God rescued them and gave them the promised land. When they demanded a human king, God gave them one. Eventually, God split the kingdom because of one king's sin. We are going to focus on the Southern Kingdom, called Judah. God had promised a king from Judah would rule forever.

Leader • Wow! Sometimes I think, if only I could see God, it would make life so much easier. But this story is a reminder that God's glory is powerful and even a little scary. God is perfectly holy and being in His presence reminded Isaiah that he—and all other people, for that matter—was unclean.

If you have ever sat in a dark room for a long time before someone turns on a bright light unexpectedly, you may have a small idea of what it might feel like to suddenly understand God's holiness compared to our sin. But God had a plan to deal with sin.

The prophet Isaiah told about the Savior. God told Isaiah about a Servant who would suffer to take away sin. That servant is Jesus. God told Isaiah how the Suffering Servant would be hurt and killed, like a sacrificial lamb. God told Isaiah about these things long before they happened. God's plan all along was to send Jesus.

Jesus is the Lamb of God, and He died on the cross to pay for sin. Jesus then rose again to prove that His sacrifice was perfect and complete. When we trust in Jesus, God forgives our sin and declares us righteous. That's the answer to our big picture question. How did God plan to fix what sin broke? Before He created the world, God planned to send the Savior to save sinners.

Christ connection

Note: You may use this opportunity to use Scripture and the guide provided to explain how to become a Christian. Make sure kids know when and where they can ask questions.

Leader • God planned all along that Jesus would die on the cross for our sin. Seven hundred years before Jesus was born, the prophet Isaiah wrote that this would happen! Jesus is the Servant who suffered so that those who trust in Him would be forgiven.

Key passage (5 minutes)

CG: Key Passage

Show the key passage poster. Lead the kids to read together 2 Chronicles 7:14.

Leader • God said the words of this key passage to King Solomon when the temple was completed. God knew that His people would not follow Him well and reminded Solomon that He would forgive their sin when they turned to Him. Because of Jesus' perfect sacrifice, we can trust that when we repent of sin and trust Jesus, our sin is forgiven and we are declared righteous by God.

SMALL GROUP

Session Title: Isaiah, Prophet to Judah

Bible Passage: Isaiah 6; 53

Story Point: The prophet Isaiah told about the Savior.

Key Passage: 2 Chronicles 7:14

Very, very, very

Invite the kids to sit in a circle. Select a kid to start the game by saying something like “I’m hungry,” “I’m thirsty,” or “I’m tired.” Then, the kid to her right will say “I’m very hungry,” (thirsty; tired; and so forth). The kid to his right will say the same thing, adding an additional “very.” Play will continue in this way until every kid has had a turn to speak. Play again as time allows.

SAY • In Bible times, people repeated words instead of using “very.” So, they might have said “I’m hungry, hungry.” If “hungry” was repeated three times, it meant the person was as hungry as could be. We learned today about a time God was described as “holy, holy, holy.” That means He is the most holy of all.

What do you think it means to be holy? (God is perfect and separated from sin. Meaning God cannot be in the presence of sin.)

What is something you remember from our Bible story today?

Future plans

paper, pencils, crayons, markers, or colored pencils

Provide the kids with paper, crayons, markers, or colored pencils. Invite the kids to draw pictures of themselves as they imagine they will be in 15 years, when they are grown-ups. Get them thinking by asking questions about what job they may want to work, where they may want to live, and if they will have pets or a family.

SAY • Wow! These are some great plans. Can you each tell me about your drawing? In our story today we learned that the prophet Isaiah told about the Savior. A prophet is someone who receives messages from God. Isaiah was given promises from God about what would happen in the future. God promised that He would send a Rescuer, and God kept that promise by sending Jesus.

When we think about the future, we can only guess what will happen, for the most part. We know some things will happen because God told us in His Word. God has promised us that Jesus will return. We know that one day this will happen!

Reflection and prayer (5 minutes)

pencils and crayons, paper, Activity/Bible Story Coloring Page, 1 per kid

Distribute a sheet of paper to each child. Ask the kids to draw while answering the following questions:

What did today’s story teach you about God?

Who can you tell about this story?

How can I pray for you this week?

Make time for prayer requests and pray for your group.
