Try to relate to Zacchaeus' story. What would it look like for Jesus to meet you where you are? How would that change your life?

Jesus entered _____ (the city where you live) and made his way through the town. There was a person there named _____ (your name). They were _____ (a label someone else has given you), and they had become very _____ (adjective to describe how that label makes you feel).

They tried to get a look at Jesus, but they were too _____ (a negative thought you have about yourself) to see over the crowd. So they ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree beside the road for Jesus was going to pass that way. When Jesus came by, He looked up at _____ (your name) and called them by name. "_____!" he said. "Quick! Come down! I must be a guest in your _____ (place where you feel most comfortable) today. _____ (your name) quickly climbed down and took Jesus to their home in great excitement and joy. But the people were displeased. "He has gone to be the guest of a notorious sinner," they grumbled.

Meanwhile, _____ (your name) stood before the Lord and said, "I will change! Lord, and if I have _____ (something you're sorry for), I will

Jesus responded, "Salvation has come to this _____ (the place from earlier) today, for _____ (your name) has shown themselves to be a true son/daughter of Abraham. For Jesus came to seek and save _____ (your name).
